

HOOP SCOUT MEDIA PLAYER SPOTLIGHT (April 12-13)

VARSITY GIRLS

1. #1 (Banshees Phillips) Trinity Cooks 2027. Fayetteville HS
Lefty driver. Floor general and vocal. Aggressive on ball defense. Crafty on the bounce and has good vision. Can shoot the 3. Facilitator. High IQ player.
2. #23 (Banshees) Peyton Ward 2027. Marshfield HS
Quick release in the midrange. Elevates on shots. Runs the floor well in transition and strong finisher around the rim. Active rebounder on both ends of the floor. Good handles when attacking. Up and rising athlete.
3. #24 (Fast Dawgs) Kylie Perce 2026. Greenwood HS
Down-hill attacker. Creative on the bounce. Strong and disciplined finisher. Takes advantage of mismatches on offense in the post area. Active crasher. Can run positions 1-3. High IQ player.
4. #00 (Mavericks) Kori Sanders 2025. Lamar HS
Quick and tough guard. Down-hill attacker. Competitor on both ends of the floor. Aggressive on-ball defender for 94 feet. Active rebounder for her height. Shifty on the bounce. Score at will from all 3 levels. Distributes the ball well. High IQ player.
5. #12 (Lang AC) Charlene Hudson 2026. Springdale HS
Nice handles. Shifty on the bounce. Finds teammates with ease in transition and in the half-court. Stretches the floor her shooting. Can get to the rim at will. High IQ player.
6. #5 (Lang AC) Jazmine McArthur 2025. Harber HS

Quick. Good vision Competitor. Down-hill attacker. Can shoot the 3. Able to get to the rim and finish through contact. Nice handles. Aggressive defender for 94 feet.

7. #25 (Fast Dawgs) C. Bean 2025. Greenwood HS
Quick. Nice handles and can handle pressure well. Pushes tempo. Can play 1-2 positions. Threat from the 3. Facilitator when needed. Scorers mentality. Good in big moments!
8. #30 (Mavericks) Hazley Grotjohn 2025. Northside HS
Scorers mentality. Nice midrange game. Stretches the floor with her shooting. Able to run positions 1-3. Good at drawing the foul when attacking. Competitor. Wants to be put in positions to make the big shot and can handle the responsibility of it.
9. #34 (Lang AC) Mariah Moss 2025. Fayetteville HS
Nice build. Strong at the rim. Good at reading the defense and making counters/secondary moves. Strong rebounder.
10. #0 (Banshees) Taiga Norwood 2028. Farmington HS
Crafty on the bounce. Nice handles. Handles pressure well. Good full court vision. Pushes tempo. Aggressive on ball defender. Up and rising star in the making.

VARSITY BOYS

1. #0 (!YES) Sammie Hinsey 2026 - Harber HS. Hinsey has the skillset and physical ability to develop into a high level player. He creates separation well, knows how to score it from inside and out. The three point shot is smooth and he has range to really space the floor. His ball handling is solid, strength and improving the handle will boost his value
2. #2 (TBE) Bryden Baxter 2025 - Bryden can score the ball at a high level. Getting to the rim, pulling up in the mid-range, or knocking down the three ball is what he does. Understands angles and how to use his body around the rim to score, has a good handle which allows him to create separation. A good competitor, plays both sides of the ball with energy and physicality.

3. #31 (Playmakers Black) Quinn Holsey 2026 - Bentonville HS. Quinn is a big time shooter. The three ball is a consistent shot for Quinn, he gets the shot off quick and it goes in. A vocal leader on the court as well, you will hear him talking the entire game. Plays hard, shows he wants to win by competing the whole game with high energy.
4. #7 (TBE) Didi Mccole Zanguim 2024 - Didi without a doubt has the highest ceiling, a 6'6 forward with a good understanding of the game. He's long and athletic, with the ability to handle the ball. His game is raw offensively but on the defensive end he can cause some trouble. Didi can play above the rim and score around the basket, getting stronger and developed more he will be on a college roster this next season or the year after.
5. #3 (ASA) Xavier Mcdowell 2025 - Elkins HS. Xavier is a good athlete, he uses his athletic ability to get downhill and make some difficult finishes. He has a good handle, is able to use his physicality and explosiveness to beat defenders from the perimeter, then plays under control around the rim to score effectively. He can also shoot from three, more consistency from three will make him even harder to guard.
6. #8 (Native Style) Xavier Harjo 2025 - Morris HS. Xavier is a true point guard, he understands how to put his team in position to win. He has a high IQ, playing through ball screens elevates him to another level. Xavier makes college level reads on the floor. He can score the ball just as good as passing, his control of the ball is good. He is crafty around the rim, plays off of two feet and takes high percentage shots. Can space the floor, can shoot the three ball consistently.
7. #6 (Ark Black) Bradley Buckman 2025 - Danville HS. Bradley knows how to score the ball, he is comfortable taking and making shots. He is aggressive and physical on the offensive end, finds the open space well and attacks it. Has a nice shot from three, can make them consistently.

8. #22 (Playmakers White) Aazire Banks 2026 - Bentonville West HS. This kid is tough! If you want a hard nosed playing player then Aazire is that player. Will play defense harder than anyone on the court, is flying around on the court. A pest on the ball makes it difficult for other guards to play under control. Can score effectively as well, fast with the ball and blows by defenders to score in the paint. Knocks down the open shots from outside. Makes the right plays and does what is necessary to win.
9. #3 (Grove OK) Briggs Fink 2028 - Grove HS. Briggs is going to be a dominant player in Oklahoma by the time he is a senior. His pace and understanding of the game impressively high this early in his career. He scores around the rim with ease, scoring through contact with no issue. A consistent jumper from three will make him a difficult player to guard.
10. #7 (Skywalkers) Jace Shulte 2025 - Seneca HS. Jace is an aggressive guard who scores the ball efficiently and effectively. He plays smart with physicality, can shoot the ball and score inside the paint well. Defensively he is very involved and likes to play some tough defense on opposing guards.